Poker

The history of poker is a matter of some debate. It closely resembles the _____Adjective_____ game of as nas, and may have been taught to _____Adjective_____ Plural noun_____ in New Orleans by Persian sailors. The name of the game likely descended from the French poque, which descended from the German pochen, to _____Verb_____.

Yet it is not clear whether the origins of poker itself lie with the games bearing those names. It is commonly regarded as _____Verb ending in ing_____ Noun_____ with the Renaissance game of _____Verb ending in ing_____ and the French brelan. The English game brag clearly descended from _____Plural noun_____ and incorporated bluffing. It is quite possible that all of these _____Adjective_____ Plural noun_____ Past tense verb_____ the _____Noun_____ of poker as it exists now.
