The Scary Monster

It was a dark night with a full Noun in the sky. The news said there was a emotion monster on the loose. They said to watch out for a half- Animal half- Animal creature with fangs, giant plural animal part - claws ears horns etc and Number plural body part. He comes out to hunt once every amount of time - four days or eight minutes etc. He feeds on human plural body part and raw food. It was on a night I had to verb home from work and the only way home was through the something outside plural - mountains hills clouds etc, I couldn't get a taxi because I had no Noun - Plural and the plural transportation weren't running that late. I had to take my chances. I threw on my single piece of clothing and plural clothing, got out my flashlight and grabbed a Noun from the nearest tree just in case, and I verb plus ED fast, really fast! When I reached the middle of the woods I started hearing animal sound - tweeting barking etc sounds, but that's common on a full moon, there are usually a lot of Animal (plural) out at night. Then I started hearing another noise - banging thumping etc noises behind me. At this point I was too emotion to cry! I started verb plus ING through the trees when my single piece of clothing got caught on a Noun, I struggled to untangle it but there was just no time to waste, I ripped it off and verb plus ED as fast as I could. Then I noticed I had dropped my Noun, when I looked back up I suddenly saw a color figure, it looked like a Adjective Number legged creature with glowing color eyes just staring at me. I took a deep breath and ran preposition - backwards forwards sideways etc, took a corner and verb plus ED my way to the open road. That's when a transportation stopped and offered to take me home. I was so emotion at that point, I got home safely and locked all my Noun - Plural . This was definitely the most Adjective night of my Adjective life!!
