Our Crazy Summer at Camp

You won't believe what happened at camp last summer.

The week before camp started Carole was playing A game when she tripped and A game and hit her A part of the body. After that she started making some very Adjective decisions.

First she moved The name of a male camp staff person from Kidville to the kitchen. Breakfast was good but a little bit strange. Nobody was expecting scrambled Food and toasted Food. The salad bar at lunch had nothing but sliced Food and a lot of Food. I'm not even going to tell you about dinner but his Adjective dessert of ice cream and Food was a favorite with the kids.

Next

she took The name of a female camp staff person out of the kitchen and made her the nurse. Everything was okay until Boy camper got the sniffles, and she had him drink A number cups of A liquid. Then when Girl camper got a Adjective splinter, she told her to find a An animal and get it to lick the splinter out.

She asked The name of a female camp staff person to work in Kidville and pretty soon she had all of the kids practicing putting bandages on each other's A part of the body. They had fun doing that but after snack she made them all A game for A number hours.

I don't have words to describe the Adjective photos that The name of a male camp staff person took or what happened in the glass studio when The name of a female camp staff person took over or the long four hours we spent untwisting The name of a female camp staff person after she tried to do a Jim's version of "Downward An animal"; in morning yoga.

It was certainly a crazy summer at camp last year.
