Widow's Lament in Spring Time

Widow's Lament in Spring Time

Sorrow is my own yard

where the new grass

flames as it has flamed often before but not with the cold fire

that closes round me this year.

Thirtyfive years

I lived with my husband.

The plumbtree is white today with masses of flowers.

load the cherry branches and color some bushes

yellow and some red

but the grief in my heart is stronger than they for though they were my joy formerly, today I notice them and turn away forgetting.

Today my son told me that in the meadows,

at the edge of the heavy woods in the distance, he saw trees of white flowers.

I feel that I would like to go there and fall into those flowers and sink into the marsh near them.
