

The Robbery

1. Past Tense Verb
2. First Name
3. Noun
4. Location
5. Adverb
6. Past Tense Verb
7. Adjective
8. Big Number
9. Past Tense Verb
10. Adverb
11. Past Tense Verb
12. Verb Ending In Ing
13. Interjection
14. Religion

The Robbery

I _____
Past tense verb out of the door with excitement in my eyes. I _____
First name had just robbed the _____ Noun in _____
Location. I was not a profuse man to say the least and I loved to steal. I was the progeny of Gilbert Down and proud of it. My father had died _____
Adverb robing the biggest Bank in America. Before he left to rob the bank he told me pro patria and although I have no Idea what that means I am that too. As I _____
Past tense verb down the street the police right on my tail I swerved right them left to avoid the oncoming cars. Then it hit me I should blow the _____ Adjective car up and escape in all the commotion. With a probiscis of _____ Big number dollars protuberant in hand and the prospect of being rich. I _____
Past tense verb the extra gas can from the back and opened it. Then pushed _____
Adverb in the cigarette lighter. When it _____
Past tense verb I opened the car door still moving, threw the lighter into the can and jumped. The next thing I realized I was _____ Verb ending in ing for my life The car had blown and no one saw me run down an alley. _____
Interjection that was a close one, but I Mr. Robert who was a proselyte to _____ Religion and a prodigy was safe.