a day in NYC

one day _____^{Noun} i was out walking my dog, i hear a loud sound come from behind my building. i could not imagine what it could be. As i got close my dog started to bark, so i quickly turned and ran the other way. but my curiosity made me go back. as we got closer, i heard the sound again. but this time it was followed by a high pitch sound. i kept walking and to my suprise the noise was coming from a cat in the garbage can eating chinese food.
