As many of you know, my name is _____ First name _____ First name and I am the _____ Noun TO THE _____ Noun _____ Noun. I have known NAME _____ First name BRIDE/ GROOM for _____ Number years, and I have never seen _____ Number HER happier than HE/ SHE is today. Except for maybe this one time. NAME OF BRIDE/ GROOM and I were in PLACE, and we went ACTIVITY. I was feeling ADJECTIVE, and NAME OF BRIDE/ GROOM was doing everything HIS/ HER power to VERB. I will never forget what NAME OF BRIDE/ GROOM told me: "_____. That's typical NAME OF BRIDE/ GROOM: Always ADJECTIVE. Another time HE/ SHE came close to being as happy as HE/ SHE is today was the day HE/ SHE met SPOUSE'S NAME. The met at PLACE, and for their first date they ACTIVITY, NAME OF BRIDE/GROOM called me afterwards to tell me how ADJECTIVE is was. This new person was ADJECTIVE, ADJECTIVE, and ADJECTIVE. I could just tell something was different. There's a quote I've always held dear, and I feel it is appropriate today: "_____. NAME OF BRIDE and NAME OF GROOM have found great joy in each other, and we're all fortunate to be sharing it with them today. May their happiness last forever.
