I _____

Adjective

Below the dying light of day

I wander silent as the grave

Grieving for the love I knew

Before the darkness swindled me of you

Deep beneath the tangled roots our colors lie asleep

The bonds of love are strong enough to keep you in my reach

Your love has rendered me a slave

To keep a promise well beyond the grave

A riddle too, my love would speak

Deciphered by the tears you weep

The tale of lovers torn by grief

And in the end youâ€™ll see why love is deep.
