

Chapter 7

1. Location
2. First Name
3. First Name
4. Noun

Chapter 7

The whitman massacre of 1847, was sad because Marcos and narissa whitman went to Location. They were killed by cayuse indians. who went on to kill 12 others at First name mission. 1847 to 1850 was the cayuse war in response to the First name massacre. 47 women and Noun were released to joesph meek in 1847. Oregon territory estabilished in 1848. then the california gold rush 1849. and the donation land act . A transactional railroad was completed in 1869. issac stevens was ambitious. Negotiating with the coastal people was easier to do because these people are required less territory then the plateau people. Finally, chief sealth otherwise known as 1/2aday was a brave courageous warrior, he puts other people first!