Criminal by Britney Spears

He is a           Noun           he's no           Adjective           at all.

He is a           Noun           he's a           Noun          Noun          Noun          Noun          .

He           Verb           he           Verb           he's           Adjective          .

He is a           Noun           with a           Noun          Noun          Noun          Noun          .

I know you           Past tense verb           me I should           Verb           away.

I know you           Past tense verb           he's just a           Noun           astray.

He is a           Adjective          Noun           with a           Adjective          Noun          .

And even I know this ain't           Adjective          .

But Mama, I'm in love with a           Noun          . And this type of           Noun           isn't           Adjective           it's Adjective          . Mama, please don't           Verb           I will be           Adjective           all           Noun           aside I just can't Verb           love the           Noun          .

He is a           Noun           by the           Possessive noun                     Noun          .

He is a           Noun           just for           Noun                     Noun                     Noun                     Noun          .

That man's a           Noun           and           Adjective          .

He's got no           Noun           he's got none none none none.

Uh ohhhhhhhhh.

I knooooooowww.

Should've let go, but no.

Cause,

He is a Adjective Noun with a Adjective Noun.

And even I know this ain't Adjective.

But Mama, I'm in love with a           Noun          . And this type of           Noun           isn't           Adjective           it's Adjective          . Mama, please don't           Verb           I will be           Adjective          . All           Noun           aside I just can't           Verb           love the           Noun          .

And he's got my           Noun                     Past tense verb           on his           Noun           his           Adjective                     Noun          .

So I           Verb           it's           Adjective           he's with me.

And I           Verb                     Noun           talk.

          Verb ending in ing           to make           Noun                     Verb           us apart.

But I don't even           Verb          .

I don't           Verb          .

Cause Mama, I'm in love with a           Noun          . And this type of           Noun           isn't           Adjective           it's Adjective          . Mama, please don't           Verb           I will be           Adjective           all           Noun           aside I just can't Verb           love the           Noun          .
