My New House (Based on a true story.)

When I turned 21 in 2011, my parents were killed in an accident. That is the year i got married. And the year i got my new house. My name is Sylvia. My husband's name is John. The day i got married was 78 days after my parents died. Nine months later i moved out of my apartment and got a HUGE house in Country. It had 6 bedrooms, 4 bathrooms as-well as 3 stories. Then i found out i was pregnant. With quadruplets!

I was so exited. I mean i had the perfect amount of bedrooms. John's parents were so Feeling So was john. When the babies were born there were 3 Gender and one girl. Now they are four months old. This is the story of my new house and a bit of my life.
