The year was _____^{Year}_____ and _____^{First name}_____and _____^{First name}_____decided were planning on getting married. This wedding was planned to take place on the _____^{Number}_____of July. Everything seemed to go by _____^{Adjective}_____ until _____^{The first name chosen}_____discovered that He was nominated to be the _____^{Proper noun}_____ of a locally owned _____^{Noun}_____in his hometown of _____^{Location}_____ _____^{Name of a state or country}_____. When _____^{The second name you selected}_____heard of _____^{The first name chosen}_____news, she said, _____^{Noun}_____ whatever choice you decide to make, I will _____^{Verb}_____you _____^{Number}_____percent.";

On July _____^{Number}_____ Toby decided to go on and marry Maria. As for the nomination he received, he decided to take the job as president of the Baltimore business. Not only did Toby get married to one of the best women in the world, but he also landed one of the best jobs a person could possibly ask for as well. Toby and Maria went on to have three children, who all grew up to be extremely successful. The oldest child became a congressman, while the youngest child pursued a career in nursing.

Toby died on May 14,1998. As for Maria, she is still alive and well. However, she decided to move back home to

Indianapolis after her husband's death. Maria cherishes the memory of her husband, and will never forget the phenomenal life they had together (along with their marvelous children).
