

Blazers lose to Bucks

1. Verb Ending In Ing
2. Noun
3. Adjective
4. Noun
5. Past Tense Verb
6. Noun
7. Adjective
8. Noun
9. Plural Noun
10. Noun
11. Proper Noun Plural
12. Past Tense Verb
13. Adverb
14. Adjective
15. Past Tense Verb
16. Plural Noun
17. Plural Noun
18. Past Tense Verb
19. Noun
20. Verb
21. Adjective

Blazers lose to Bucks

Blazers decided not _____
Verb ending in ing_____ on Monday was the strategy for winning the _____ Noun_____ versus the Bucks. As a fan I found myself _____
Adjective_____. If this were a _____
Noun_____ everyone would have been _____
Past tense verb_____ by the end of the first _____ Noun_____. The Blazers were just _____ Adjective_____. Reciting the _____ Noun_____ is a tired old game played by drunk _____
Plural noun_____. The second unit found itself deep in a philosophical conversation regarding _____ Noun_____. Unable to overcome the inner inertia and paralysis of such a deep thought, _____
Proper noun plural_____ were _____
Past tense verb_____ useless. Also Babbit played _____ Adverb_____ but is most remarkable as his new hair cut was _____ Adjective_____. The Bucks meanwhile, _____
Past tense verb_____ the ball a lot and did _____
Plural noun_____ on the court. They put a lot of _____ Plural noun_____ in our face. My personal decree that Thabeet _____ Past tense verb_____ the mood with his _____ Noun_____ alas, this was a swan song for the dead as he appeared long after I got up to _____ Verb_____. The final score can best be described as the tale of Patroklos, who stole his lovers armor to fix the situation, only to be slain the other side resulting a naked man screaming upon the battlefield in _____ Adjective_____ sorrow.