

The Plagues

1. Noun
2. Noun
3. Noun - Plural
4. Verb - Past Tense
5. Noun
6. Adjective
7. Adjective
8. Number
9. Number
10. Noun
11. Body Part
12. Type Of Animal
13. Adjective
14. Adjective
15. Verb - Base Form
16. Noun - Plural
17. Noun - Plural

The Plagues

Once a long long time ago, in the _____ Noun of Egypt lived a _____ Noun named Moses. Moses and his Jewish people were _____ Noun - Plural to Pharaoh, who held the Jews as slaves. When Moses couldn't take it any longer, went to Pharaoh and _____ Verb - Past Tense him to free them. He simply replied NO! This happened several times, Moses going to Pharaoh with his _____ Noun Aaron, asking to be freed. Each time Pharaoh answered no and his heart hardened. God saw this was _____ Adjective and decided to curse plaques on the Egyptians because of Pharaoh's bad ways. The first time, he cursed them with _____ Adjective blood that filled all of the rivers. Pharaoh again said no. Next, God spread about _____ Number, _____ Number frogs throughout the land. Again Pharaoh didn't allow them out. So again, Moses itchy and _____ Noun lice. Every Egyptian discovered lice in their _____ body part. Pharaoh again, wouldn't let them leave the land. So God cursed wild _____ Type of Animal to the Egyptians. Pharaoh, once again didn't free them. The plagues started coming _____ Adjective, as Pharaoh kept saying no to Aaron and Moses. There was disease of the livestock, _____ Adjective and itchy unhealable boils, and hail started thundering _____ Verb - Base Form throughout the land. Then there were locust bugs and darkness where no one could see for a couple of _____ Noun - Plural.

Moses went again. And Pharaoh kept saying no! Finally God cursed the worst plague of all. The death of the first born. Every Egyptian first born was killed. The Jews were told to mark their doors with _____ Noun - Plural blood so that the angel would Passover their house and not kill their sons. Pharaoh was so saddened by the plague that he let the Jews leave instantly. They were free to go at last! Well... almost...

