Insurance Claim

I was taking my boat to the _____<sup>Noun</sup> for a day of fun in the _____<sup>Proper Noun</sup>. The sky was _____<sup>Adjective</sup>, the grass was _____<sup>Adjective</sup>, and it was a beautiful day to be on the water. As I was driving down the road, I had the worst luck with other _____<sup>Noun - Plural</sup> cutting in and out in front of me. I thought, gee, it must be a full moon tonight. As I came to the next intersection, all of a sudden a young _____<sup>Noun</sup> driving a flaming red moped cut in front of me and slammed on his brakes to look at a _____<sup>Noun</sup> that was sitting on the side of the road. Initially, I thought that was rather rude, as I slammed on my brakes to avoid running him over. Suddenly, I heard a large _____<sup>Adjective</sup> and my boat was no longer on the trailer, but was instead on my truck. Talk about _____<sup>Adjective</sup>!! The police came, and wrote the kid a ticket for improper lane change. He gave me his insurance _____<sup>Noun</sup>, so that I could have my truck fixed. Then I drove to the lake and backed my truck into the _____<sup>Noun</sup> to launch the boat. It was too nice a day to go back home!!!
