The Dog who Saved Christmas

1. Proper Noun _____

2. Adjective _____

3. Proper Noun _____

4. Noun - Plural _____

5. Adjective _____

6. Noun _____

7. Adjective _____

8. Noun _____

9. Adjective _____

10. Adjective _____

11. Verb _____

12. Noun - Plural _____

13. Noun - Plural _____

14. Noun - Plural _____

15. Verb - Past Participle _____

16. Adjective _____

17. Adjective _____

18. Adjective _____

The Dog who Saved Christmas

"Finally!" The dog thought to himself. "My first _____ Proper Noun _____! I can't wait to see the children's faces in the morning, when they see the _____ Adjective _____ tree!" The dog settled himself on the couch, and that was when he saw them, freshly frosted, _____ Proper Noun _____ _____ Noun - Plural _____. "Well, I can't just leave them there! They'll go bad, then the children will feel _____ Adjective _____." So the dog gobbled up the cookies, he didn't spare one _____ Noun _____. "There! Now the children will be happy!" The dog went back to his spot upon the couch and soon dozed off. He awoke to a _____ Adjective _____ noise outside. "What is this?" The dog pondered to himself. He shook himself, and got up. "HO HO HO!" He heard. "Oh, my! I think someone's coming down the chimney!"

The dog turned his _____ Noun _____ just in time to see a _____ Adjective _____ man with a _____ Adjective _____ bag come down into the den. "Oh no! He's trying to _____ Verb _____ the tree!" The dog burst into a fury of _____ Noun - Plural _____ and claws! "GET AWAY FROM MY TREE!!!" The dog growled in rage. "Nice doggy, nice doggy!

Oh Ho! Please, get off me!" The man cried. But the dog just growled some more. Meanwhile, while they were rolling on the ground, they were knocking over all the Christmas _____ Noun - Plural _____! All the _____ Noun - Plural _____ were smashed into tiny glass bits, the stockings hung so carefully, were _____ Verb - Past Participle _____ and destroyed. "You bad dog! I'm putting you and your whole house on the _____ Adjective _____ list for life!" He screamed before again disappearing up the chimney. The dog, panting, crawled back up to the top of the couch.

His breathing slowed to normal speed. "Finally." He thought to himself. "The _____ Adjective _____ man is gone,

NOW the children will be _____ Adjective _____." And he put down his head, and again fell, asleep.