The Craziest Shift Ever

I work _____ Location on _____ Day of the week nights. It is my all-time favorite shift! I usually enjoy a _____ Favorite drink and a _____ Adjective walk around the covered sidewalks checking on _____ Noun - Plural
_____. There are rarely any problems. This last _____ Repeat Last Day of the week, however, was unlike any other. As I was _____ Repeat Last Location sitting inside of _____, it began _____ Type of weather with ing. It began _____ Repeat Last Type of weather with ing hard. It _____ Type of weather ed so hard that I could hardly see out of the windows. But when I did see out those windows, this is what I saw.

Students began emerging from the bushes. They were wearing _____ clothing plural and carrying _____ Noun - Plural. Then, I heard " _____ Name of a Song " playing over a loudspeaker. The students suddenly began _____ Verb - Present ends in ING in time. It was _____ Adjective! A flashmob on campus?!? On BJU campus!
? My first thought was, " _____ Interjection! This is really _____ Adjective." But it got weirder. A _____ Full Name of a Person impersonator started climbing the _____ Noun belting out the main chorus. Not _____ Repeat Last Noun twirling around the _____. Climbing it! To the very top! Now, I'm beginning to worry. After all I am the one in charge of the area right now. What if this guy gets hurt?

But just when I thought it couldn't get any worse, another student joins in the _____ Verb - Present ends in ING and _____ Verb - Present ends in ING. Except this student was not wearing a _____ clothing. He was wearing his _____ clothing! Aaah! What to do? Beckon _____ Repeat Last Full Name of a Person to please climb down, ask all the

to please stop Repeat Last Verb - Present ends in ING, or chase after the guy in Repeat Last clothing? "Excuse me, but we ask all of our male students to please wear their clothing plural at all times." But just when I thought it couldn't get any worse...

I woke up to Full Name of a Person tapping my shoulder. I had fallen asleep on the job.
