

Keely B. Nothing to Fear

1. Adjective - Comparative
2. Adverb
3. Adverb
4. Pronoun
5. Verb - Past Tense
6. Noun
7. Adjective
8. Proper Noun
9. Interjection
10. Verb - Past Participle
11. Adjective
12. Noun

Keely B. Nothing to Fear

What doesn't kill you makes you _____ Adjective - Comparative _____, but happiness can appear on strange occasions. Ma had lost voluminous amount of blood from delivering Patrick, _____ Adverb _____ Adverb _____ Pronoun _____ fell asleep she _____ Verb - Past Tense _____ into a _____ Noun _____ and couldn't wake up. The only thing she could manage was breathing. Can't even visualize how Daniel felt about Ma almost dead and his Pa is dead. Without that special someone in his life, how is he going to survive with his baby siblings? He would have to beg for eternity, and the only one who could take care of him, his brother, and sister is _____ Adjective _____ Hank. It is very unlikely that Ma will survive, but he is foreseeing for the best. They were washing Ma off and _____ Proper _____ Noun _____ couldn't stay for that, but that is when she woke up and shrieked, _____ Interjection _____ Let him stay. If she wasn't alive right now, it would be mighty tough for Hank. He would have to raise great amounts of money by himself, or they wouldn't even have gotten _____ Verb - Past Participle _____. They are all one big _____ Adjective _____ family now. They still support and care about their ex-spouses, but they still have a tiny bit love left for each other. Now that all three of them are working, Daniel, Hank, and Ma, they can make a living and take care of each other in tough times. As long as you have happiness in your family, it will last you a whole _____ Noun _____.