

I Have Lived 1000 Years JH

1. Noun
2. Verb - Past Tense
3. Conjunction
4. Adjective
5. Preposition
6. Pronoun
7. Adverb

I Have Lived 1000 Years JH

Imagine if all of your paper possessions were suddenly taken away from you and burned? Although today things like this happen less often, in 1944 it wasn't uncommon for the Jews to lose all of their paper possessions.

_____ Noun and Budi were responsible for taking all of their things to the paper pile. The _____ Verb - Past _____ Tense to a long line and waited for a while to get to the front. They were told by the guards they would get everything back, _____ Conjunction everything in the pile was burned. Although Ellie lost her honor scroll and other _____ Adjective possessions, she didn't lose her poem book. Ellie was smart enough to sneak the poem book _____ Preposition _____ Pronoun blouse before she turned everything over to the guards. Since she had _____ Adverb and carefully printed each of her poems into the book, she didn't want to risk losing them. It turned out it was a good idea to keep the book in her possession. Later, Ellie gave the book to a guard who she thought she could trust. The guard promised to keep the book safe and give it back to her later. WAIT! Do you think she will actually get the book back? Do you think the guard will fulfill his promise? How would you feel if all of paper possessions were burned?