Loosing My Accent

Straight off of the _____^{Noun} from the _____^{Location} _____^{Location}, it was like I entered a whole new _____^{Noun}. The _____^{Noun - Plural} where full of _____^{Noun}, instead of _____^{Noun}. People were _____^{Adjective} _____^{Verb - Past Participle} instead of the traditionally _____^{Adjective} to _____^{Adjective} _____^{Noun}. This was a real shock. I felt so out of place. But it wasn't until my _____^{Noun} to the new city had I began to really change who I was. Insetad of flaunting my _____^{Noun}, I acted like those who where _____^{Verb - Present Tense} _____^{Adjective} like _____^{Verb - Present Tense} _____^{Noun}. It was different but I liked it. It wasn't until later that I fully _____^{Verb - Past Tense} an _____^{Adjective}. Living the everyday life of one, as if I was _____^{Verb - Past Participle} an _____^{Adjective}. On my return to my _____^{Noun}, had I have a _____^{Noun} that I _____^{Verb - Past Tense} a big part of who I was. Looking back on what was, I felt _____^{Adjective} to think that loosing my _____^{Noun} would get me greater status. Little did I know, it was my _____^{Noun - Plural} intention the entire time.
