First Class

When I walked into my first Proper Noun of Proper Noun class I didn't know what to expect. I sat in the nearest available and waited for the rest of the class to in. The guy next to me like he hadn't verb - Past Participle in years. As soon as the professor walked in, he was verb - Past Participle with questions by one of the students. The hadn't even started! I soon learned the meaning of a kid. The professor looked at him, Verb - Past Tense , and told him to kindly " Verb his Noun and wait for the Noun
". The lecture on The Proper Noun dragged on for an Verb - Present Tense 75 more Noun - Plural , with constant interruptions from the Determiner kid. This is going to be a long Noun
