

Welcome to the 2011-12 School Year

1. Adjective
2. Noun - Plural
3. Noun
4. Noun
5. Verb - Past Participle
6. Verb - Past Participle
7. Adjective
8. Adjective
9. Noun
10. Noun
11. Verb
12. Proper Noun
13. Number
14. Noun
15. Verb - Past Participle
16. Adjective
17. Verb - Present Tense

Welcome to the 2011-12 School Year

2011-12 is a year of _____ Adjective _____ change for the Albert Lea Area School District. When students return to school in the fall, they will be transported on new _____ Noun - Plural _____, greeted by many new staff members, fed under a new _____ Noun _____ program at lunch, and be exposed to a new district science curriculum. Our Middle School will have a different _____ Noun _____ with the new 6th and 7th grade format, while 8th and 9th graders will now be _____ Verb - Past Participle _____ together at the High School. All of our buildings will have wireless internet capability, and Ipads will be _____ Verb - Past Participle _____ by some students in the district for the first time. Our teachers will be learning from many _____ Adjective _____ colleagues as Professional Learning Communities (PLCs) are re-formed in each building. The district is placing _____ Adjective _____ emphasis on PLCs because of their proven _____ Noun _____ at increasing student _____ Noun _____. As a result of the district realignment, staff members throughout the district will have the opportunity to _____ Verb _____ each other strategies that they learned elsewhere. Finally, as your _____ Proper Noun _____ and a parent of _____ Number _____ students in our district, I wish to emphasize that my focus will be on engaged _____ Noun _____. We owe it to our students to have them _____ Verb - Past Participle _____ in instruction throughout the school year. Student engagement will be a _____ Adjective _____ part of our professional discussions. I look forward to _____ Verb - Present Tense _____ many of you at upcoming events throughout the year. Mike Funk