Giving Gifts

Olga is a Adjective gift giver. She always knows what to get Aaron. For his Adjective Proper Noun, Olga Verb - Past Tense him by buying 45 Noun Noun - Plural from Raisn Canes (one of his favorite Noun - Plural). She blind folded him and then brought him a huge Noun of Noun after he had just eaten a ton of Noun. Aaron is not a great gift giver. A few weeks later, when it was time for Olga's Noun, Aaron texted and ask her, "Are you Verb - Past Participle to any Noun - Plural?" "No, why?" she asked. The next day when they saw each other Aaron was very Adjective and to her that he had gotten her a Noun for her Noun. Olga Verb - Past Tense out and became very Adjective with Aaron saying that she thought it was too much Noun to just give someone a Noun. He thought it was great to watch her Verb. After about an hour of her trying to let him down he told her that he had gotten her Noun Noun instead.
