What Bob did instead of RPGing

Once there was a man named Bob. He used to play Some Old Game but switched to Role-Playing games when he turned An Age. Some nights he couldn't play because he was Some Activity Involving Travel for a trip to Travel Destination. Also, when he was moving he gave us like Some Number of Advanced Warning Months months notice. When he did show up, he would often roll a Twenty and sometimes a Bob Swear Word two. The end!
