'NO! Hands out of the Noun.'

Number 3 year?old Mya Adverb back when the voice above warned to to Preposition or subordinating conjunction out of the treats on the table for the fourth time. She had come into the family room to Noun with her bouncy Noun on the Verb - Past Tense floor. She noticed there were lots of Noun, Noun, Determiner and Noun on the coffee table.

Preposition or subordinating conjunction had also put her in a really pretty Verb - Non 3rd Person Singular Present, but she didn't know why.

Soon some Adjective came into her Pronoun. At first she was Verb. She didn't always like to Noun new people. However, one nice lady with glasses came in and she always brought along her little friend Fiona and this made her happy.

Then more and more Verb - Past Tense Pronoun and her Adverb was crowded. Then she saw him. He was very big, and had a loud deep Proper Noun. Worst of all was that he was a 'Big Scary Monster Guy'.
