Bunk 4

I have been here at camp for a few period of time now, and many people have told me that Bunk 4 is the Adjective bunk there is. I wasn't sure if they were lying or telling the truth, so I went down to Verb - Base Form. It was so Adjective when I Verb - Past Tense in there, I couldn't Verb - Base Form! Those boys must never Verb - Base Form or change their Article of Clothing!

Ryan "the Animal" Fulchino was sitting in the corner Verb - Present ends in ING. Jace was Verb - Present ends in ING from the ceiling making Animal noises. Tyler had locked himself in the place in the bunk. Adjective Jack was Verb - Base Form around without any Article of Clothing. Francisco was screaming at the top of his Body part, and Max and Alec, the two Adjective ones in the bunk, were holding Josh hostage in the back place in the bunk. When I went to look for Mark and Greg to see how they could let their bunk get so Adjective, I found them behind the bunk Verb - Present ends in ING and Verb - Present ends in ING to a Spice Girls song. What a mess!
