Although _____ her or she _____ is modest about _____ his or her _____ art, people are intrigued by what _____ he or she _____ does and look forward to viewing _____ his or her _____ 'latest' work. To many, _____ he or she _____ possesses the spirit of a true artist.

_____ Students First Name _____ has a distinctive artistic style which is instantly-identifiable but isn't stagnantly stitched to redundancy. _____ he or she _____ pursues art-making with an open mind and is as-likely to be seen sharpening his fundamental skills as experimenting with new techniques and concepts. This balance, gives his artwork 'pulse' and sophistication. I have also been impressed by his sensitive, respectful approach and willingness when helping other art students.

Aside from all his artistic qualifications, he is an uplifting and positive person who is very down-to-earth and adventure seeking. He is highly motivated and can be counted on to create finished-quality work under real time constraints.

I feel fortunate to know Frankie Waterman and believe that he will continue to be an asset to the artistic community, as an artist and a leader in any capacity he is needed.
