Trouble

We have a puppy we call Trouble. He is a small ANIMAL. But he can get in to big trouble. He likes to chew on Noun, Noun - Plural Noun - Plural and Adjective Noun. He can make big messes. One time he knocked over my LIQUID, and another time he chewed up my shoe Proper Noun and pieces were everywhere. He likes to chase our ANIMAL Wassaby. They play GAME Of War with each other a lot. The worst part about Trouble is when he Verb ending in S on the floor it smells like Adjective Noun ! When Trouble takes a bath he licks the LIQUID from the sink. And when I dry him off he still smells like SPecific smell. Trouble can be a big pain in the body part, but he is also very cute. He has very Adjective fur and his body part plural hang over the sides of his face. They are floppy and Adjective. He is a cute pup, but I can't wait till some one buys him and takes him to his new place
