World War 1

1.	Verb - Present Tense
2.	Noun
3.	Adjective
4.	Verb - Present Tense
5.	Noun
6.	Verb
7.	Verb - Past Tense
8.	Verb - Past Tense
	Proper Noun
	Verb
	Verb - Past Tense
	Noun
13.	Verb - Past Participle
	Noun
15.	Adjective
	Noun
	Verb - Past Tense
	Verb - Past Tense

World War 1

I was in the Battle of Sheikh Sa'ad against the Ottoman empire. I was a Noun in the army. It was really verb - Present Tense People were laying down with Noun pouring all over the place. I was thinking that I should Verb So, I did. I Verb to the Hanna defile, which, in retrospect, wasn't my best decision. After 14 days of Survival of the fittest, I heard the Ottomans coming. So, I away on the opposite direction. The Proper Noun found me, and told me to Verb in the battle. I Verb - Past Tense, reluctantly.
Like all the battles, was pouring all over the place. I got verb - Past Participle twice. Then, I saw something that I may be hallucinating. I saw a Noun , with Adjective wings and a Noun tail. It Verb - Past Tense our army from the Ottomans, and it Verb - Past Tense away the Ottomans, giving us the victory. I was happy, and then everything went black.

©2025 WordBlanks.com · All Rights Reserved.