Dad's Birthday

Today is dad's Noun . One of the things is will do is ride his Proper Noun around town with his friend First Name of a Person . They go to places like Location Location , Location , and Location Location . This year will be the first year he will be able to choose his own cake because we share the same Noun and he always like me pick the cake and I don't Verb - Base Form in the same state anymore. He will open presents and finally get his own day. Which he deserves. He is the best Noun and I love and miss him dearly. Happy Birthday Proper Noun !!
