Jackknife goes to the zoo

Jackknife pulls a keg out from behind a Noun in a wooded area. He grabs the tap and pours Drink into his mouth. He burps loudly and looks down to see a baby bear at his feet. The cuteness of the cub causes him to Verb - Base Form. Suddenly a mother bear appears behind Jackknife and growls Adverb. The Adjective bear stands on it's hind legs. Without hesitation, the bear hits Jackknife with its Body Part, hurdling him through the air. Bruised and bloodied Jackknife throws a Noun at the bear and runs into an authorized personnel only security area. He blindly runs over zoo surveillance controls, knocking over Drink and electrocuting nearby security guards. The fried remains of a guard fall on a button, releasing all the animals from their cages. On security screens we see Animals and Animals trampling guests. Animals quickly eat their corpses. The mother bear returns and looms over a little girl. Just as the bear is about to eat the girl, Jailbot bursts out from inside the Bear, spewing blood everywhere. To repair the damage, Jailbot grabs a nearby bunch of Noun - Plural and hands them to the girl. Jailbot flies over to Jackknife where he is fighting Animals in their cage. Jailbot grabs Jackknives by the Body Part and flies him off to Superjail. As they leave we see a giant Noun where the zoo used to be.
