

The Great Hunger

1. Proper Noun
2. Pronoun
3. Abstract Noun
4. Noun
5. Number
6. Collective Noun
7. Same Proper Noun
8. Same Proper Noun
9. Verb - Past Tense
10. Concrete Noun
11. Interjection
12. Noun - Plural
13. Interjection
14. Possessive Noun
15. Noun
16. Adverb
17. Same Proper Noun
18. Adjective
19. Conjunction
20. Compound Noun
21. Same Proper Noun

The Great Hunger

One day, _____ Proper Noun got very hungry. As he was looking for something to eat, he found a giant taco shell in his cabinet. This gave _____ Pronoun a _____ Abstract Noun for a taco. He walked over to his refrigerator, he slipped on an ice cube. As he fell backwards, he dropped his taco shell. The shell hit the _____ Noun and broke into _____ Number _____ Collective Noun. _____ Same Proper Noun started crying and tried to think of a solution to his problem. Right away he remembered that his dad told him about the crazy glue they had in the garage. So _____ Same Proper Noun _____ Verb - Past Tense out to the _____ Concrete Noun and brought the _____ Interjection glue back into the kitchen. He found all the _____ Noun - Plural and started to glue them back together one by one. He was about _____ Interjection through when a drop of glue got on _____ Possessive Noun fingers. He tried to wipe it off with his other hand, but they just stuck together. He had no idea what to do. Finally, after an _____ Noun of crying and trying to pull apart his fingers, his dad comes home. _____ Adverb, his dad knows just how to fix the problem. He has _____ Same Proper Noun run his fingers under _____ Adjective water until they come apart. Bob is still hungry, _____ Conjunction he asks his dad to make something to eat. His dad then asks him, "how about _____ Compound Noun ?". _____ Same Proper Noun just says, "actually, I think I'll just go with cereal".