What is _____^{Noun}? I thought about it once or twice and tried to understand, but I could not. I simply didn't have enough information. It is just as _____^{Adjective} and _____^{Adjective} as the words _____^{Noun} and _____^{Noun}. Simple words that, once uttered, caused _____^{Adjective} damage to the Creator who uttered them. Some never returned. Some became _____^{Adjective}. Some never spoke again.

I saw a man fall to the ground once. He oozed _____^{Noun}. At the time, I thought it was something of Creation, a project of an Artist. Now, I am not so sure. I never saw that man again, and _____^{Noun} is/are rarely seen. There was much of it. He must have been taken to the Community, as one is supposed to keep one's _____^{Noun} to one's self.
