There once was a           Noun           team from Canada. Everyone           Verb - Past Tense                     Pronoun           and came to see them           Verb          . Their           Noun - Plural           promised the           Noun - Plural           years of           Noun          . They are still           Verb - Present Tense          .
