How To Have A Relaxing Morning- by Rhonda Kokopele

Adjective - Superlative

Noun to ardee on Monday, Wednesday and Friday, if it does happen to be one of those days. Last ditch, get up, and make a b-line for the room in house, family member in hand, at slow enough pace to not crack your Noun-Pland on a door jam or piece of Noun, but fast enough to not be upright for too long, that hurts worse. Once you have filled the glass, and downed your daily dose like a hungry Type of animal, head to the room in house and run some Limid. Now you can call the same type of skill girl again and Adverb find out when she'll be at your house. She usually verb-creaent tense for you if you Verb-Singular Present enough. Once all of these things are done, you can go back to Noun, and Adverb wait for one of four things. The same type of skill girl to call back, a rype of lob to call and yell at you for missing Noun, the Noun to spill over again, or the pills to kick in. I'll take number 4! Follow this with a half a bar of Drup and that's what I call a relaxing morning!
