

Wolf and Dragon

1. Noun
2. Adjective
3. Verb - Past Participle
4. Verb - Past Tense
5. Noun
6. Verb - Past Participle
7. Noun
8. Noun
9. Verb - Past Tense
10. Noun
11. Noun
12. Noun
13. Verb
14. Adjective
15. Verb - Past Tense

Wolf and Dragon

There once was a boy named Wolf. He was a decendent of a Noun of shape-shifters, people that were bound to an animal spirt. The clan lived in a Adjective mountain because they thought that humans would fear and discriminate them. Wolf wanted to see the world to know more about life he wasn't Verb - Past Participle living in a secluded mountain. Wolf was young but he was a great warrior he was strong and had never once Verb - Past Tense a fight, so he was sure he could face any enemy that came his way. Wolf decided it would be easier to travel in his animal form and so he did. He arrived at a Noun that was being Verb - Past Participle by a red dragon. They suspected the dragon was after the village leader because of his magic powers. Wolf gathered his Noun and set out to kill the dragon. He saw a Noun and decided to look for the feind there. He Verb - Past Tense the dragon's presence before he saw it. As soon as he saw the dragon Wolf attacked thinking it would be an easy victory, to his great suprise the dragon did not yeild. Soon enough both warriors were fighting for their life and neither would yeild to the other. They fought for hours and neither was able to gain an Noun over the other. Wolf noticed that the dragon fought as if it was holding a Noun and he remebered that when his people transformed thei Noun would become a part of them. As soon as he rembered that the dragon began to Verb soon the dragon was shining very brightly. When the light died down Wolf saw a girl in the dragon's place. She had flaming red hair and was holding a weapon. Wolf asked her for her name and she said it was Dragon. Wolf then asked her why she had been terrorizing the village. Drago told him it was all a misunderstanding that she needed the village leader to help her shift back. Wolf laughed and said she was probably too intuned with her dragon spirit but after their _____ Adjective _____ bout Dragon had exhausted all her magic forcing her to change back.

Wolf still impressed with Dragon's fighting skill asked Dragon to join him on his journey. Dragon agreed and together they _____ Verb - Past Tense _____ the world.