Autumn Fun

Once upon a time there was a little Noun named name that loved fall. He loved the colors of the leaves, the Noun, the Noun - Plural, and most of all, all of the Adjective food. He got Noun on Halloween and a huge feast with turkey, ham and food for Thanksgiving. He couldn't ask for anything more.

For Halloween he wanted to be a costume for trick-or-treating because he thought it was the Adjective costume of all. He thought he would get lots of food and tons of Noun.

For Thanksgiving, he was going to his aunt and uncle's house as he does every year to enjoy a huge Noun and watch some sport.

He knew this fall was going to be the Adjective fall ever.
