Mitt Romney says "No"

1.	Verb
2.	Verb - Past Participle
3.	Adjective
4.	Verb
5.	Verb - 3Rd Person Singular Present
6.	Verb - Present Tense
7.	Verb
8.	Verb - Present Tense

Mitt Romney says "No"

It doesn't just verb the middle class -- it dismantles it. It dismantles what generations before have verb-Past Participle to ensure that everybody can enter and stay in the Adjective class. When it comes to getting the middle class back to verb, Mitt Romney verb-3rd Person Singular Present, "No." When it comes to verb-Present Tense women's rights, Mitt Romney says, "No." When it comes to letting people verb whomever they love, Mitt Romney says, "No." When it comes to verb-Present Tense access to good health care, Mitt Romney says, "No."

©2025 WordBlanks.com · All Rights Reserved.