A _____Adjective_____ _____Adjective_____ zebra was walking in my _____Adjective_____ _____Adjective_____ forest. It was cold out so the _____Noun_____, Steve, went to find a leprechaun. Well, Steve found a pot of gold at the end of a rainbow, so he knew the leprechaun had to be close. As he was walking through the fantasy forest he came upon a magical _____Noun_____. The dwarf gave him a map on where to find the leprechaun. There were three locations spotted on the map. The first was a chocolate shop because everybody knows that the gold at the end of the rainbow is just gold wrapper that was covering chocolate. Steve traveled to this chocolate factory. The leprechaun was no-where in sight. Steve looked at the second location on the map, it was in _____Noun_____. He decided to take a plane. No it's not random to see a purple zebra named Steve on an airplane. While he was on his way, he found another rainbow. It was then that he saw the leprechaun. Steve found a parachute and jumped _____Adverb_____ of the plane. He landed on the rainbow and slid down to the leprechaun. Steve squashed the leprechaun. The leprechaun screamed "AHHHHH" and "JEPPERS" in pain at the sight of the zebra's hind quarters. As soon as the leprechaun started to run, Steve went after him. The leprechaun got tired and went to the side of a tree. What he didn't realize was that the tree was a loophole and he fell through. Steve was _____Adverb_____ running after him. They both fell into the hole and that's how the unicorn was created. The end.
