Picture it.....New Years Eve 1999....

You could feel the _____ Preposition or subordinating conjunction in the air. Everyone had the same question on their _____ Noun - Plural . "Could this be the last _____ Noun on _____ Proper Noun as we know it?" The word had spread that all _____ Noun systems would not rollover to " _____ Number " once midnight struck causing systems to _____ Verb or something. Look that _____ Noun up. It was totally _____ Adjective _____ Noun . Grocery stores were cleaned out of _____ Adjective _____ Noun - Plural and _____ Adjective _____ Noun . Expensive _____ Noun _____ Noun - Plural were suddenly a _____ Adjective commodity.

Warning signs were everywhere but no one knew what was in store.

As the evening developed, the _____ Verb - Past Tense was at fever pitch. The world held it's _____ Noun and counted.....

_____ Proper Noun !

_____ Proper Noun !

_____ Noun !

SEVEN!

_____ Adverb !

FIVE!

_____ Noun !

TWO.....

When suddenly all of the Noun in all of the world shut down. There was only Noun and Verb - Present Tense. Everyone ran into the streets smashing Noun Noun - Plural and Verb - Present Tense everything they could Verb. Some were simply Verb - Present Tense for the material gain while others, Noun stricken, were collecting Noun - Plural and Noun - Plural. A small group of Noun - Plural were blindly Verb - Present Tense anyone who came in their path out of mass Noun. Then without warning....A Proper Noun!

Simultaneously every Noun and Noun powered Noun on Earth animated without any Noun! The Noun - Plural had begun to take over. People were Verb - Past Participle by cords and wires. They were Verb - Past Participle to death and sprayed with Noun acid. The Noun - Plural were out for blood for no logical reason. How could this have happened? Why? Everyone died immediately. I'm actually a Noun. End of story.
