Witches in Salem

It was a _____ day in the colony of Massachusetts. Since it was the Sabbath, all the _____ prepared to leave for church. There was no talking, _____, or playing around. As the families entered the church, men, women, and _____ all sat separately. As the minister talked _____ things began to happen. Girls started yelling and seeing things that did not exist. Fear spread throughout the Puritans.

As the doctors examined the _____ they decided it was the _____ work. Only the devil could cause the girls to see things or make their bodies convulse. Stories began to spread around the town of Salem that _____ lived among them.

People began to _____ on their neighbors and reported anything out of the ordinary as witchcraft. The Puritans were afraid the witches would _____ them. Soon the accused witches were put on trial for their actions with the devil. In just over a year 23 witches were executed by _____.
