I love Valerie!

Once upon a time there was a lost little boy named First name. He was a Adjective little boy growing up and got himself in all kinds of Noun. One day after a long Event he met a very Verb ending in ing girl named First name at a party, she was very Adjective and Adjective. She sat on his Animal and fed him some cheesy Plural noun Adjective he thought to himself..... First name had not had the Proper noun of a girl in many months and he was very Adjective; in more ways than one! As the evening came to an end First name knew he had to make his move so that he would see this girl again. So First name thought he would have to give her Plural noun she would not forget..... but what? he thought and he thought but could not think of anything to give her until he decided to Preposition her big and soooo soft lips. To make a long story short the girl was too Adjective to remember the kiss the next day, but much to First name delight she decided to let him see her again. First name and First name began to see each other Adjective ever since then and they are now Animal and Animal and they live Adjective ever after. The End!
