Give Me Liberty Or Give Me Death

MR. ______ First Name of a Person ______: No ______ thinks more highly than I do of the patriotism, as well as abilities, of the very worthy _______ who have just addressed the House. But different Animal often see the same subject in different lights; and, therefore, I hope it will not be thought I shall ______ forth my sentiments freely, and without reserve. This is no time for Location . The question before the House is one of awful moment to this country. For my own part, I consider it as nothing less than a question of freedom or slavery; and in proportion to the magnitude of the subject ought to be the freedom of the debate. It is only in this way that we can hope to ______ verb - Base Form _____ at Location , and fulfil the great responsibility which we hold to First Name of a Person and our country. Should I keep back my opinions at such a time, through fear of giving offence, I should consider myself as guilty of treason towards my country, and of an act of disloyalty toward the majesty of ______, which I revere above all earthly kings.
