Thomas Paine

The verb - Present ends in S that has now taken place in of the total abolition of the whole national order of priesthood, and of everything intention, but verb - Past Tense a work of this kind exceedingly necessary, lest in the general wreck of superstition, of false systems of government, and false theology, we lose sight of morality, of humanity, and of the theology that is true. As several of my colleagues and verb - Present ends in S of my verb - Present of France have given me the example of making their voluntary and individual profession of faith, also will make mine; and I do this with all that sincerity and verb - Present ends in S with which the mind of man communicates with itself. I believe in one God, and no more; and I hope for happiness beyond this life. I believe in the equality of man; and I believe that duties consist in doing justice, should be supposed that I believe in many other things in addition to these, I shall, in the progress of this work declare the things I do not believe, and my reasons for not
