trip to Wisconsin Dells

I verb-Past Tense to Wisconsin Dells during the late, Adverb chilly poun-season. I stayed at the hotel called the Great Wolf Lodge. It had a few water areas that had pools, hot tubs, water playgrounds, and other pool related things. It also has a sort of small arcade, but it had some fun games. I verb-Past Tense to the arcade to play some games and won my mom a couple of prizes. I Adverb swam in some of the pools and hot tubs. We verb-Past Tense to a restaurant that was next to the Noun. Our room had a Adverb log cabin room just for kids and two other beds. Interjection! There was this Adverb water slide that started inside, instantly went outside, and then after awhile it went back inside. There was a Noun that was outside, and it was Adverbe cold that was cold even as you were in it for awhile. All in all it was a pretty cool experience going to Wisconsin Dells.
