Our Best Football Clutch Moment

With one minute to go I _____ Verb - Past Tense _____ as fast as I possibly could when #33 was running down the sideline. I had to go _____ Adjective _____ Adjective _____ and try to push him out. I then _____ Adverb _____ but yet _____ Adverb _____ got ready for the next play. Then a counter run _____ Verb - Past Tense _____ up the sideline and _____ Proper Noun _____ leaped over a player. Then he crushed his way into the endzone. Our _____ Adjective _____ faces then turned depressed. At last Alex Koehler with a _____ Adjective _____ face barreled through the line to stop the 2-point conversion. So then we excitedly got ready for the kickoff. _____ Proper Noun _____ returned the kickoff and _____ Adverb _____ ran forward for a decent gain. A timeout was then called by us. _____ Proper Noun _____ _____ Proper Noun _____ said "I believe in you". He had faith in us. So the next two deep passes were sad and failed attempts.

Now anxiously on our last play of the game Malik and I _____ Verb - Past Tense _____ ourselves for a hailmary. Drew then took the snap and drew back cautiously. Then the ball was soaring in mid air and bam. The ball went into his hands. _____ Interjection _____! Touchdown, we won! We all then piled around malik for the celebration as we were coach Deans first 500 team. We went 0-3 to coming back with a 3-0 game winning streak. What a way to end my Charles City Middle School career.
