The day I found out that I might be going to a 1D concert

It was a Adjective day, me and my mom came home after picking me up after school we drove up into the garage and got out of the car, it was kinda Adjective in our garage except for the sun shining through the windows. We took our shoes off and then went inside the house, we walked up the stairs that lead into the kitchen, I put my bag down and then my dad walked out of his office and asked me how my day went and I said "good" and he was like that's good and I'm like "yeah". Then I turned on my iPod and put in my password then went to the music app and started to listen to One Direction of course haha :), then I went to the Verb - Present ends in ING app and texted Darrell and then started to work on my math homework. My Noun came over to my house and talked with my parents. I don't know what they were Verb - Present ends in ING about because I was doing my Noun homework, the show they were watching was Cupcake Wars, the show is about these people who are really good at making Noun - Plural and they have to complete and make all kinds of cupcakes and make the decorations on the theme they were given, that theme will be the theme for the rest of the show, and towards the end of the show they will have to make a setup for the cupcakes going off the theme, and make over a hundred cupcakes all different kinds they will use the kind of cupcakes they made on earlier in the show but better from what the judges wanted when they did a taste test so there's only two people left and the judges will have to pick who was gonna win and they will use there's in a party.

Then my aunt and my parents go out on the porch to finish Verb - Present ends in ING so my aunt could leave .

Then they come back in so my aunt can grab her purse and phone. then she starts to talk to me about what I want to have for my birthday and then my dad starts to list things and one of them was tickets to one direction concert and

I started to flip out i'm like "yes!" that would be the Adjective - Superlative present in the world ". I started to laugh and cry at the same time hahaha :).I was so happy that I might be going to a one direction concert if they come around Iowa and we get tickets. Then my dad walked into his office it was about 6:30 PM and my aunt finally leaves to go pick up my kozins from dance practice.
