

Diversion Contract

1. Noun
2. Noun
3. Adjective
4. Adverb
5. Adjective
6. Adjective
7. Noun
8. Verb - Base Form
9. Proper Noun

Diversion Contract

//

The above-named _____
Noun is alleged in a _____ Noun petition(s) to be _____ Adjective. The Court

Counselor finds that there is _____

Adverb sufficiency to support the following _____ Adjective(s):

Disorderly _____
Adjective at School

.)))

As part of the Diversion _____ Noun regarding the above allegation(s), the Court Counselor (Department of

Juvenile

Justice and Delinquency Prevention) does hereby _____ Verb - Base Form into a Diversion Contract with the juvenile's _____

Proper Noun/

guardian/custodian.

The juvenile agrees to abide by the following condition(s):

Cooperate with the following community program(s):

Be responsible for restitution in the amount of: $

Perform community service:

X Other:

Follow through with Outpatient therapy and follow all recommendations of her therapist. Do Not violate any laws. Follow all reasonable and lawful rules of your Parents. No out of school suspensions. Eliminate referrals.

Meet with Court Counselor Mansell when required.

This contract begins on 11/06/2012 and ends no later than 05/06/2013 and will be reviewed every thirty (30) days. The duration of the contract shall not exceed six (6) months.