Gobble, Gobble

The Smith Family is getting ready to have their extended _____ over for Thanksgiving. Mom got up early to put the turkey in the oven. Dad was out hunting since it was _____ season. The children were outside _____ in the _____ fallen snow. As lunchtime drew near, other family members started _____. Mom was busy preparing food in the kitchen when Grammy Mary _____ in. "How's the Bird looking?" she said to Mom. "That's a great question, Mary. I've been so busy _____ on making the rest of the food that I haven't checked on it in a while. Do you mind looking in the oven for me?" "Of course, I can do that!" Grammy Mary was _____ when Mom asked her to help. As Grammy Mary opened the oven door she gasped. "Is this a joke?" Grammy asked. "Where is the turkey? Is it already finished and you are just playing a trick on me?" Mom had a _____ look on her face. "What do you mean? It isn't in there? I put it in there with my own two _____ this morning!" Grammy Mary stepped aside and said, "Look for yourself my _____." With her own two eyes, Mom looked into the oven and what did she see...a big, fat NOTHING! Mom _____ her head. "Where...How...What in the world happened to the turkey?" Mom said.
