Tinker Greetings 2012

Every year, the day after _____^{Holiday}_____, we decorate our house for Christmas. We string the lights, hang the _____^{Noun - Plural}_____, play Christmas music, drink hot _____^{Beverage}_____, and enjoy setting up the tree together.

This year we will gather together from far and near to _____^{Verb - Base Form}_____ each other's news...

Hal _____^{Verb - Past Tense}_____ to Saudi Arabia in August for a work promotion. He tells how he ate grilled HAMOUR and, for the first time ever, liked fish!

Michele shares about _____^{Verb - Present ends in ING}_____ our garage and attic remodel project. Now we can easily find _____^{Noun - Plural}_____ and locate seasonal boxes!

Cameron is excited to _____^{Verb - Base Form}_____ in _____^{Month of year}_____ from LSU with a B.S. in Computer Science.

He is _____^{Verb - Present ends in ING}_____ to Columbus, GA in Jan to begin working for AFLAC.

Beth is settled in from her move to LSU from PhilaU and she is very happy with her major change from fashion _____^{Noun}_____ to psychology. She is sporting a shorter new _____^{Noun}_____ cut and loving her new college _____^{Noun}_____.

Peter started high _____^{Noun}_____ this year. He bought his first _____^{Adjective}_____ suit and went to Homecoming.

He takes guitar _____^{Noun - Plural}_____ and sings.

Jonnie is in his 2nd year of soccer and saxophone. He is in 6th Noun . He recently Verb - Base
Form his Noun at the doctor's office, got 5 staples and a concussion, but is doing much better now.

Grandpa is Verb - Present ends in ING to visit in Month of year for graduation and Christmas.

As we place the glittery gold Noun on the top of our tree and plug in the Noun , we wish you a Merry Christmas and a very Happy Proper Noun Year!
